

Home

{mosloadposition rotator}

Sulaxmi Lok Sansthan - SLS previously known as The Indian National Trust for the Welfare of Tribals was established in year 1996 under the trust act of 1908. It is a non-partisan, non-political and non-profit organisation working with the objective of betterment of relatively disadvantaged population groups i.e. tribals in particular and others in general. The Trust is enjoying FCRA status to receive grants and 80G certificate for Indian Tax Exemption. It is also the fiscal partner of US based non-profitable organization sharing thus enjoying 501(C)3 status. SULAXMI is currently active in Micro Finance on a wider scale & it has started micro finance activities with the project entitled 'SULAXMI'. SULAXMI provides Micro Loans & other financial services to the poor for their livelihood and business expansion which leads them to economical self sufficiency & self sustainability.

